Come and join us for Lancaster's 2nd Baby Shower, the area's largest baby expo!

This event is free and open to the public. Local and National vendors will be showcasing their products and services for expecting and young families.

There will be lots of give aways, special sales, drawings and raffles for some of the hottest new baby gear and activities available! This event is for anyone starting a family, anyone thinking of starting a family, families with young children, parents, grandparents, caregivers and more!

Last year over 500 people attended, and this year we are expecting even more! You do not want to miss this fun community event!
